

Washington Apple Pi
presents

MAC MASTERS SERIES featuring
Bob "Dr. Mac" LeVitus
Friday, May 30 & Saturday, May 31, 2008

FRIDAY 10AM - 5PM

TAMING LEOPARD

Enhance your productivity and creativity using the latest Mac operating system, OS X 10.5.

SATURDAY 9AM - 2PM

LIVING THE iLIFE

iPhone/iPod Touch, iTunes, and Apple TV including Switching 101

Get the most from Apple's newest life-enhancing devices and resources. Thinking about switching to the Apple operating system? Find out how (and why you should).

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Friday: Anyone who wants to Master Mac OSX and learn to do more in less time. Knowledge of OS X is not required.

Saturday: Anyone who owns (or plans to buy) one or more of these devices, or is considering switching to Apple from a PC.

Location: Rosslyn Spectrum, 1611 N. Kent Street, Arlington, VA
(just across the Key Bridge from Georgetown; 2 blocks from Rosslyn Metro)

THIS GUY WROTE THE BOOK!

Bob "Dr. Mac" LeVitus has written over 50 books, selling millions of copies. His most recent include iPhone for Dummies and Mac OS X Leopard for Dummies. He also authors columns for the Houston Chronicle newspaper and Mac Observer web site. Bob runs Doctor Mac Consulting, a company that provides expert Mac technical support and user training globally.

REGISTER NOW AT WWW.WAPSTORE.BIZ - SPACE IS LIMITED!

- FRIDAY $139; $99 WAP members
- SATURDAY $99; $59 WAP members
- TWO-DAY DISCOUNT $189; $149 WAP members